May 2013

Dear PAL Members --

I hope we're all enjoying this beautiful Spring weather. Plein air painting anyone?

In addition to a great speaker (see below), our May meeting will feature another great PAL Flea Market table. More information in the PAL News below.

And, the beautiful 30th Anniversary PlacerArts/PAL Open Juried Show is still hanging in The Arts Building Gallery, so be sure to allow extra time to see the show while you're there for our May 7th meeting.

Creatively yours,

The May 7th Placer Arts League (PAL) meeting features Jodi Reed, an accomplished local gourd artist.

"Gourds are wonderfully individual," she says. "Each one resplendent with its own characteristics", she explains. Jodi has taken the craft of using gourds to the level of fine art with tools and techniques to create pieces of beauty as well as utilitarian value.

Join us at The Arts Building, 808 Lincoln Way, Auburn at 10:00 AM for a most interesting and creative discussion and demonstration.

30th Jubilee Open Juried Show

To celebrate PlacerArts 30th Anniversary and PAL's 55th anniversary, we've joined forces this year to create the 30th Jubilee Open Juried Show. Held for the first time in The Arts Building Gallery, 808 Lincoln Way Auburn, the show will run through May 31.

Don't miss it!
