PAL NEWSLETTER August 2012

PAL Members --

Many of us have been traveling this summer, so we haven't had a PAL meeting since June 5th.

Our PAL Open Juried Show was a big success this year. The Bernhard Winery turned out to be a great venue. Art and history buffs came out for the show's run, traveling from all over California as well as many other states to see the art and the museum as well. We owe a big debt of thanks to Melanie Barton and Mary Jane Coon of the Placer County Museums Department for their assistance and support.

Our fearless PAL leader, Diane Friedberg, will give us a full Open Juried Show update at the August meeting. And for those of you who are technology-oriented, I'm looking for someone who knows Constant Contact to serve as a backup newsletter editor. Any volunteers?

Now that the summer is winding down, it's time for the next PAL meeting on August 7th. I hope to see you there!

Best regards,

Pat Lucas

Newsletter Editor

August PAL Meeting

The August PAL meeting will be held Tuesday, August 7th at The Arts Building, 808 Lincoln Way in Auburn at 10:00 AM. Instead of an artist demonstration, this month's meeting will be a fun participatory painting event for us all to collaborate on creating a beautiful piece of art. Interested? We'll be creating a collaborative collage painting puzzle. Each person will get a small piece of the whole image. Then, you'll draw your piece on a piece of illustration board and paint it with acrylics.

Collaborate!

Not a painter? That's OK. We want everyone to participate in this activity -- even if painting is not your medium. Everyone is creating a piece of the puzzle and when we're done, we'll see the impressive piece of art that we've created.

We'll be meeting in the ArtSpace downstairs at The Arts Building. Because we will be painting with acrylics, be sure to wear something appropriate to paint in.
