December PAL Meeting

Holiday Gathering at La Fornaretta

Our December 3rd PAL is our yearly holiday get-together. This year, we elected to forgo the potluck that we've had in the past and instead meet at a restaurant, La Fornaretta in Newcastle. Thirty-five (35) PAL members have made reservations, so we expect to have a great time. The address is: 455 Main St. #4, Newcastle. We even have a surprise demonstrator this year and plan a tour of the Newcastle Art Studios after lunch.

Unfortunately we're unable to add more people, so for those who aren't joining us in December, we'll see you on January 7th at The Arts Building at 10:00 AM for our January meeting.

Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Joyous Kwanza and other holiday greetings to you all!

Best regards,

Pat Lucas

Newsletter Editor

PAL News

PAL Auburn Art Walk at Auburn City Hall - Our beautiful exhibit is still on display, so stop by Auburn City Hall, 1225 Lincoln Way Auburn in the next few days to see it. Take-down is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec 3 from 10 to 11 AM -- just before the PAL Holiday Gathering in Newcastle. If you have artwork in this exhibit, come get your work or make arrangements for someone else to pick it up for you.

We would like to recognize our PAL members who have volunteered to take responsibility for certain tasks:

- Hank Manning for stepping up to take over the Umpqua Bank Venue Manager position from Debra Hosler.
- Pat Aragon for her responsibility for managing the PAL Membership Shows at Umpqua Bank.
- Sandra Rea for assisting Charlie with calling the PAL membership.
- Amy Newson and Hank Manning for assisting with the PAL newsletter.

Suzanne Blaney at the Beecher Room - A retrospective exhibition of paintings by Suzanne Blaney will be presented at the Beecher Room, Auburn Library, from November 1 through December 30. She will present one of her very first paintings, done in 1973, through one of the last, completed in 2008. After that time, her productivity turned full time to books and writing. A light reception will be held Saturday, November 9 from 3 to 6 pm, with her current books on display.
